

Case for the Luftwaffe Ehrenpokal

Description

The Luftwaffe Ehrenpokal was instituted on 27 February, 1940 for award to Luftwaffe personnel who had already received the EK 1 but whose additional wartime feats didn't warrant the DK or RK. It was presented in the case described here. Note the presentation boxes. When the collector encounters this very scarce accessory it will invariably be the type covered in blue leatherette, pictured below. Boxes in red, said to be early war issue, are extremely rare.

Detail of catch and hinges.

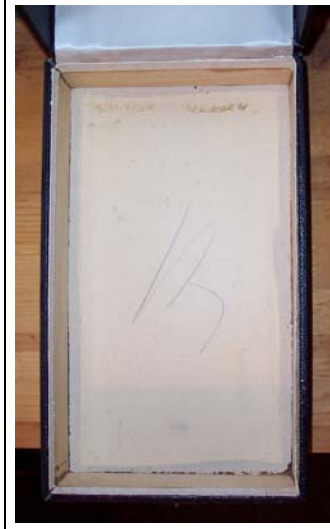

Case opened, showing bottom and top.

Insert removed, showing bottom.

Inside of case with insert removed.

Prepared by G. Stimson – August 2005

Details

Length	261 mm	Width	151.5 mm	Weight	436 gr
		Height	114 mm	Material	Light wood covered with blue leatherette. Bottom interior is blue velvet. Top is white satin.

More info: http://www.wehrmacht-awards.com/service_awards/honor_awards/goblet/third_presentation.htm

Copyrights Wehrmacht-Awards.com

This page is copyrighted, any total or partial reproduction without written permission is prohibited.

